OTHER NEWS

The Superintendent shared information with the Board regarding the draft curriculum. Stakeholders can check out resources at the new LearnAlberta website and can continue to have their say on the Draft K-6 Curriculum—Public Feedback Survey.

The Board passed a motion to choose the new public member from the adult learning community to join the Audit Committee. This position was left vacant at the time of the Organizational meeting. The position was advertised on our website. The Board is thankful to its public members that will come together in January to review the annual Audited Financial Statement and provide input into the public communication plan.

Welcome to the New Board of Trustees!
